

Empathy map

living in poverty are likely to experience deprivations related to lack of resources such as nutrition, safe water and electricity for educational or domestic needs. lack of resources impact health outcomes. it also creates social stigma in perceptions about the lack of clenliness.

Build empathy

The information you add here should be representative of the observations and research you've done about your users.

Share template feedback

